Passing motorist reported that a naked adult male was in the open front yard of a residence at the T intersection. (This was during school dismissal time.) Said male - a known subject - was found sunbathing facedown on a towel with his buttocks exposed. He was advised of complaint and to cover the bathing suit parts of his body if he was going to be outside. He covered himself with a towel.

Complainant said his housemate was walking around naked inside the residence (see also AC# 19-2715) and was also intoxicated, which led to another argument between the three occupants. He was advised that since said housemate was in the privacy of his own home it was not a violation. All involved were advised yet again that someone should move out and/or to start the eviction process.
