Created By: SCOTT D. SCHAEFFER

PennDOT-connected towing service / safety patrol said a unoccupied sedan - parked on the westbound bypass shoulder for one or two days - was now missing the hood and the windshield was damaged by an unknown object. (Said agency said they were handling the matter on their own as an abandoned vehicle incident.) Vehicle's registered owner did not have a listed or known phone#.

* Owner called in later in the day and was given incident report info. Owner was making arrangements to have it towed by the end of the day.

Two-vehicle non-injury collision on bypass. (Per two uninvolved motorists - both called 911 - it appeared to originate as a 'road rage' incident which began within the city limits.) Both sedans sustained damage but were operable. One was a 'loaner' from a dealership.
